Isobel Shaw : Pakistan at the Cross Roads of Asia (India Guides Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pakistan at the Cross Roads of Asia (India Guides Series):

Pakistan is South Asia's best-kept secret. Ushering the mighty Indus River from the snow-clad peaks of the Karakorams to the warm waters of the Arabian sea, Pakistan is home to a civilization as old as ancient Egypt - yet is a key player in daily headlines. It is an Islamic republic guided by a resurgent faith, but whose heart still stirs to the wail of bagpipes. Here the traveler finds a variety of landscapes, of peoples, of architectures, and of bazaar bargains worthy of a country twice its size. History buffs, ethnic enthusiasts, tea-shop idlers, shoppers, photographers, strollers, trekkers, and mountaineers can find what they are looking for in Pakistan.
