We first bought ours in 2015 and loved how awesome it was. These guys work tirelessly to get you information in a way that is easy, fun, and detailed all at the same time. So much better than other formats or paperbacks. They have a loyal fan base of followers that help in contribution and content and very few if any mistakes in the publication. Not to mention that they have tons of experience with Disney. If you are looking to become a Disneyfile, this is a way to go.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Best book for Disney HANDS DOWNBy C.P.My favorite GO TO Disney book. This is the second time I got one of these. holds everything and all the information you need is in the book. I will be taking this to Disney with me and carrying it around to keep track of our daily itinerary. Perfect planning book, instead of just a fun to look at book with pretty pictures. this book has it all, maps, pockets for day to day info for you to put things, descriptions of rides, restaurants, tips....everything. Best book out there and I've bought a lot. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful.) They are both excellent. If I had to pick one By Aylady In the past, I have used Birnbaum's Disney World Guide. This year, I used both. While they are similar, there are some differences. PassPorter has lots of places to write plans and keep papers (like reservations , etc.) They are both excellent. If I had to pick one, it would be PassPorter.

With four major theme parks and 22 hotels, Disney World can be daunting this indispensable travel planner simplifies the process. Each of the four major parks gets in-depth coverage, complete with full-color fold-out maps and a description of every ride and attraction. Exhaustive profiles of Disney-owned resort hotels feature detailed maps, color photos, and room layouts. The guide also covers all of the parks 300+ dining options.

About the Author Dave Marx is cofounder and publisher of PassPorter Travel Press and along with Jennifer Marx, has co-authored 30 PassPorter guidebooks. He discovered Disneyland in 1975, the Walt Disney World Resort in 1997 and first cruised with Disney in October 1999. He's attended Disney celebrations, anniversaries, and christenings, and especially loves researching new ports of call. Jennifer Marx is co-founder and executive editor/creative director of PassPorter Travel Press. She's built a life-long love of all things Disney into a more-than-full-time career. Jennifer is the author of nearly 50 books, including the guide that started it all: PassPorter's Walt Disney World. Jennifer and Dave's 10-year-old son, Alexander Marx, is a veteran visitor to Walt Disney World, has cruised the Mediterranean, toured Disneyland Paris, and took his first steps while transiting the Panama Canal. He offers expert opinions and brings his own 'Toddler Tips' and 'Kid Tips' to PassPorter's Walt Disney World. They live in Ann Arbor, MI.
