M.D. Rev. Isaac Adams : Persia by a Persian;: Personal experiences, manners, customs, habits, religious and social life in Persia, before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Persia by a Persian;: Personal experiences, manners, customs, habits, religious and social life in Persia,:

Excerpt from Persia by a Persian: Personal Experiences, Manners, Customs, Habits, Religious and Social Life in Persia While out on lecture tours in this country, I have been asked many questions about the manners, customs, and peculiarities of my own people. These questions I have found it very difficult to answer in the little volume, Darkness and Daybreak, so as to give anything like a clear picture either of the people or the country in the brief time that I had to answer them under such circumstances, and, hence this book which I now present to the public, with the earnest hope that it may find a welcome.
