F. Khansari : Persian Travel Guides: Fars, Abyaneh, Kermanshah, Kish/Qeshm/Chabahar before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Persian Travel Guides: Fars, Abyaneh, Kermanshah, Kish/Qeshm/Chabahar:

This is a collection of short (approx. 12 pages each) travel brochures highlighting different areas in Iran. They are filled with very nice color photographs and descriptions (in English) of the subject region. With descriptions of the languages, wildlife and major attractions in each region, these books together are an inexpensive way to get to know Iran's land and people better. Each guide features the best-known sites and attractions, such as the great historical city of Persepolis, the beaches and sea life of Kish, Qeshm and Chabahar, the adobe-style vernacular architecture of Abyaneh and the classic architecture of Kermanshah. Each book size is 22 x 22 cm (approx. 8.6 inches).
