Sharif Cultural Institute : Persian Travel Guides: Zanjan, Ardabil and Gilan before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Persian Travel Guides: Zanjan, Ardabil and Gilan:

This is a collection of short (approx. 12 pages each) travel brochures highlighting different areas in Iran. They are filled with very nice color photographs and descriptions (in English) of the subject region. With descriptions of the languages, wildlife and major attractions in each region, these books together are an inexpensive way to get to know Iran's land and people better. Each guide features some of the most famous sites, such as the tomb of the Mongol ruler Sultan Uljaitu Khodabendeh in Zanjan, The village of Masouleh (Gilan) built right into a mountainside, and the magnificent architecture of Ardabil. Each book size is 22 x 22 cm (approx. 8.6 inches).
