Ben Box, Robert Kunstaetter, Daisy Kunstaetter : Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador Footprint Handbook (Footprint Handbooks) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador Footprint Handbook (Footprint Handbooks):

Linked by the sinuous spine of the Andes, Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador are born of a synthesis of ancient America and medieval Europe. Footprint's Handbook will guide you from the unforgettably unique Galapagos Islands, through the awe-inspiring citadel of Machu Picchu, to the shimmering turquoise waters of Lake Titicaca. Great coverage of the top activities and sights in the region, including the colonial treasures of Quito; spectacular costumed festivals; sacred pyramids and temples; the incredible salt flats of Salar de Uyuni Packed with information and suggestions on how to get off the beaten track, from where to find the best artesanía to seeking jaguars in the rainforest Includes comprehensive information on everything from transport and practicalities to history, culture and landscape Plus all the usual accommodation, eating and drinking listings for every budget Full-color planning section to inspire travelers and help them find the best experiences From the mysterious Nazca lines to bustling indigenous markets, Footprint's fully updated 5th edition will help you navigate this breathtaking destination.

About the Author Ben Box: One of the first assignments Ben Box took as a freelance writer in 1980 was subediting work on the South American Handbook. The plan then was to write about contemporary Iberian and Latin American affairs, but in no time at all the lands south of the Rio Grande took over, inspiring journeys to all corners of the subcontinent. Ben has contributed to newspapers, magazines and learned tomes, usually on the subject of travel, and became editor of the South American Handbook in 1989. Having a doctorate in Spanish and Portuguese studies from London University, Ben maintains a strong interest in Latin American literature. In the British summer he plays cricket for his local village side and year round he attempts to achieve some level of self-sufficiency in fruit and veg in a rather unruly country garden in Suffolk.

Robert Daisy Kunstaetter: Born and raised in Ecuador (Quito and Riobamba), Daisy Isacovici's pet peeve is being mistaken for a gringa. Robert Kunstaetter hails from Montreal, where Daisy attended university. Soon after they met in 1979, he suggested travelling in South America for a year or so', and they have yet to turn back. Over the years and miles, Robert and Daisy became regular correspondents for Footprint, contributing to the South American Handbook and other Latin American titles. Based back in Ecuador since 1993, they are authors of Footprint's Ecuador Galapagos and co-authors of Footprint's Bolivia and Peru Handbooks. After all these years, Robert and Daisy still have difficulty distinguishing between work and play.
