Robin Gauldie : Peru Travel Pack (Globetrotter Travel Packs) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Peru Travel Pack (Globetrotter Travel Packs):

The highly successful "Globetrotter Travel" series, which includes "Travel Guides", "Travel Maps", "Road Atlases", "Best Of Pocket Guides" and "In Your Pocket Language Guides", presently covers more than 90 destinations worldwide. "The Packs" are excellent value, including both a guidebook and a softcover version of the fold-out "Globetrotter" map of the region, in a printed plastic wallet. The handy pocket-size guide is packed with useful information, tips and recommendations, accompanied by colour photographs, charts and maps for the first-time traveller who wants to experience the major highlights that Peru has to offer. This travel book surpasses other guides in that it incorporates essential information in an easy-to-carry and easy-to-read format that is attractive and useful at the same time. It provides a visitor with an invaluable introduction to Peru by concisely highlighting the country's 'must see' areas in a practical and user-friendly format, thus encouraging the tourist to make the most of his/her available time. All the essential information you need to get around an unfamiliar country is compacted into useful and practical 'At-a-Glance' sections at the end of each chapter. The fold-out map of Peru is ideal for tourists and visitors. In addition to the main map of Peru, which highlights scenic routes, it features 1 site map and 6 town plans.

About the Author Born in Dundee, Robin Gauldie was educated at Edinburgh University, where he studied history. He worked in a museum in Stirling and as a reporter on several local newspapers in Scotland before moving to London, where he now lives.
