I. I. Hayes : Pictures of Arctic Travel: Greenland (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pictures of Arctic Travel: Greenland (Classic Reprint):

The purr pose of the author has been to draw, from personal experience, some pen-pictures of life and nature among the sublime mountains, crags, glaciers, and icebergs of Greenland. His original design was to publish a work of more pretentious size, in three parts, to be entitled, respectively, Greenland, Iceland, and The Arctic Sea ;but, as he found the matter expanding to cumbersome proportions, he has divided the three parts into as many volumes. NEW YORK, January, (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.) About the Publisher
