This was constantly in my hip pocket while deployed to the Middle East. It is not an exaggeration to say that pulling the correct word or phrase out of this book meant the difference between success and failure at the tactical level in some missions. It is comprehensive enough to be useful and concise enough to be a reasonable addition to a combat patrol. What more do you want?

I use this with my beginner ESL student and it's hit or miss in terms of having common words. It's a nice, slim book but has too little vocabulary to be a good reference. Also the Arabic script comes out very small and slightly blurred.
