Edward H. Elwell : Portland and Vicinity before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Portland and Vicinity:

It shows how the city was in detail, guides you through places that, if you used it as a guide today, would take you on a unique tour. You would be able to find many markers today that would relate to this late 19th century book. Valuable if you are visiting Portland, going to visit Portland or want to remember Portland; it is just a great read.
