Putre - Lauca National Park (Chile) 1:100,000 Trekking Map Putre - Lauca National Park at 1:100,000. The map covers the area around Putre and the adjoining Lauca National Park, stretching along the Bolivian border from the Cerros de Condoriri with the peaks of Aromo and Carisi to Volcan Guallatiri, including Lago Chungar, Volcn Parinacota, Volcn Pomerape and Nevados de Quimsachata. The map uses satellite imagery as a base, with contour lines and colouring to indicate different types of terrain and habitats. Contours are at 50 m intervals with numerous additional spot heights. Road network indicates 4WD tracks and local paths. Symbols highlight locations with tourist accommodations, camping sites, banks, mountain rescue posts, accessibility by local buses, etc. The map has a UTM grid, plus margin ticks for latitude and longitude at 5'. The reverse side includes a map of the area around Putre in much greater detail, enlarged to 1:30,000. A street plan of Putre is annotated with a list of various facilities and places of interest. The map also includes a table of selected tourist facilities (accommodation, food, handicrafts, tour and trekking agencies, etc) in Putre, Arica and Parinacota. Map legends and other text include English. Printed on regular paper.
