Okay for wallsBy ubarpantsWhen I start planning a big trip (which to me is 10+ days), I like to buy a map of the area and pin it to the wall in my study (which is a fancy way of saying "room where we keep the computer") at home, both for inspiration and to reference how far things are from each other without constantly resorting to Google maps. This works well enough for that purpose. It could be a little friendlier on the eyes in terms of color use, making cities and highways stand out, etc. The insets are helpful as well.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful.
