It cost me $30 ( including the mailing). Recently, I bought a better New Jersey map for only $5 ( much larger, clear) in a store.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. waste of spaceBy BigbangThe map shows the road information of Brooklyn/Manhattan/Bronx which is unnecessary at all because this is supposed to be the NJ map. Use the space to show the detailed road map about Jersey city and Union city. These 2 places which are so close to Manhattan don't have much useful road info.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Good overall state map but tiny.By PhilNice map but only good for the major roads. Too small for travel within the state but great for traveling across the state or for city to city. About 1/4 the size of a typical AAA map.

Streetwise New Jersey Map - Laminated State Road Map of New Jersey - Folding pocket size travel mapThis map covers the following areas:Main New Jersey Map 1:750,000New York/New Jersey Area Road Map 1:220,000Newark Airport Map 1:90,000New Jersey, The Garden State, has been the butt of more jokes than blonds, Joey Buttafuoco and the chicken crossing the road combined. Having said that, if you are living in or traveling through the Manhattan metropolitan region, New Jersey may well end up on your itinerary, particularly the western Gateway section of the state. So be prepared, be STREETWISE.The Gateway Region, west of Manhattan, continues the urban density of the metropolitan area. The turnpike and expressways may be efficient for traffic, but offer little in terms of visual enticement. Elsewhere, New Jersey has great charm and beauty. Head a course south of Gateway, and you will find the Shore Region with surf fishing, boating, and an abundance of water sports. Continuing south, Greater Atlantic City, with its afternoon sun and evening glitter, is a place that is always turned on. The major attraction here is gambling which is easy to locate on the Atlantic City inset map.The Southern Shore Region nestled between the Delaware Bay and the Atlantic Ocean is the perfect place for boardwalk strolls and romantic walks through the old streets of picturesque towns Cape May, Wildwood, and Ocean City.Northwest of the Gateway is the Delaware River Region, where Colonial homes, famous battle sites and beautiful scenery come together to make for a rewarding trip. Heading further northwest you'll reach the Skylands Region where visitors can expect to see bald eagles, historic villages and romantic B&Bs.Our pocket size map of New Jersey is laminated for durability and accordion folding for effortless use. 'Don't leave home without STREETWISE.' --The New York Times'STREETWISE is an absolute travel essential.' --Travel + Leisure Magazine'In a strange city, your sense of direction is only as good as the map in your hands. The best maps to carry are published by STREETWISE.' --Chicago Daily HeraldAbout the AuthorSTREETWISE is the first map to be designed with modern graphics and is the originator of the laminated, accordion-fold map format. We've set the standard that every map company has imitated but never duplicated. Our mission is to make you feel comfortable, to make you feel safe in a place where you've never been before and to enable you to experience a familiar place more fully.The company was founded in 1984 by Michael Brown, who had been in international publishing for many years, setting up subsidiaries for textbook publishers. In the 1970s, Brown traveled extensively throughout Africa, India, the Middle East and Southeast Asia. Brown would take a large paper map, cut out the city center, folded it up and slip it into his pocket, thus preventing him from looking like a tourist in areas where discretion is the better part of travel. This was his tool for surviving.After many years on the road, Brown settled back in New York and decided to start his own business, based on the adaptations he had made to maps in his travels. His goal was to give someone the ability to navigate easily in unfamiliar terrain.He started with a new map format: the accordion fold. Such a simple idea, but at the time it was revolutionary. No more struggling to fold an awkward, oversized paper map. This new format would enable the user to blend in like a native, instead of stick out like a tourist. Brown then added lamination to ensure that the map would be a lasting tool.More important than the format was the design of the map itself. It had to be a map that not only succeeded above and beyond any map he had used, but was esthetically appealing as well. The look of it had to be as striking as the functionality. Color was introduced in a way that was never seen before in a map - vivid purple for water, soothing gray for the background of street grids, gold to highlight elements of the map. Clarity, conciseness and convenience in a very stylish package. Building the business was a 24 hour job. Brown sold the maps during the day, zipping around Manhattan making deliveries on his Harley Davidson. At night he packed the orders and did the design work. More titles were added, each title requiring months of research and design. Today, STREETWISE produces over 130 titles for major destinations, regions and countries throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Australia, Europe, the United Kingdom and Asia. We have grown from the back of a motorcycle to selling millions of maps around the world. Yet each title is still painstakingly researched and updated. STREETWISE is one of the only, if not THE only map company that conducts research by walking or driving an area to ensure accuracy. After all, what good is the map if what you hold in your hands doesn't match what you see on the street sign? This lengthy fact checking results in superior accuracy; in effect, we've done the work, now you have the adventure. In the end, it's not about the map, it's about getting out and finding your own authentic experience wherever you go. It's about being in a city or a region and discovering things that you never thought you would find. You can do this if you have confidence and you have confidence if you have a great map. STREETWISE is the great map that you need.
