1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Limited Info...By A. T. HallI just received this book in the mail. Book is only 45 pages..1 sided. Chapter 1 creating your own travel agency last pages 1 through 4. Then the book lists the various cruise/hotel agent log in websites(and tips for that site).nothing more...After i test the method i will update review.

This simple step-by-step guide to creating your own home travel agency and registering with travel industry suppliers (cruise lines, hotels, etc) will enable you to experience fantastic vacations for far less than you ever dreamed possible. Whether you want to run an actual travel agency business for profit, or just travel at incredibly low travel agent rates, this guidebook is for you!

About the AuthorEric Cesario was born and raised in Independence, Ohio, a small suburb just south of Cleveland. After graduating as valedictorian of his high school class in 1987, he went on to John Carroll University, where he earned a B.S. in biology in 1991. He then graduated from Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine in 1995 and was elected to the Alpha Omega Alpha honorary medical society. Board-certified in internal medicine, Cesario works as a physician in the Akron area while maintaining his very successful home travel agency. He and his wife Stephanie, married at Walt Disney World in 2004, have 3 children: Gabrielle-age 3, Angelo-age 2, and Melina-age 9 months.
