Jose Bescos Cano : Tales from Antarctica: A journey in the Spirit of Sydney before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Tales from Antarctica: A journey in the Spirit of Sydney:

Well yes... I went to Antarctica sailing on a sailboat from Cape Horn. Someone said to me: you do want to gamble your life in a silly way. But I have always had more of the feel of Napolen: Dying is nothing, but to live defeated and inglorious is to die daily.

About the Author Economist and traveler, I feel curiosity for every event happening in any place of the world. After several trips to the african continent, southeast Asia, and the exciting sailing journey to Antarctica, to share the experiences with my tales, and to incite to reflect with my stories, is a matter of enjoyment, generosity, some narcissism and the need of contribute to the prosperity of society.
