The tale is of two cats and their adventures in the city of Florence. We visited many of the same sites, resturants etc... so this is a wonder keepsake and we were able to find on versus carry back on the plane. (cheaper too)

The book, written for children aged 6 to 10 and illustrated with drawings and photographs, is a fun way to accompany a visit to Florence.

About the AuthorKate McBride works as a writer and filmmaker and lives between Vancouver, Florence and Biot. She writes for travel and wine clients and works in music and film.
