By danielle frederick I really enjoyed this Box set! I have a sister in law who was born and raised in Brazil and to find out more about her home country is excellent. We are planning a trip there to visit her family and this helps me get some ideas on what to do when there. I especially liked book 2, Portuguese for beginners as it will give me the basic knowledge to speak to, order, ask for directions, and get help if needed. This book will probably be pulled out many times on my trip.

By Susan Myers Not worth the money, not even at .99, for a list of a few restaurants, shopping centers and obvious tourist attractions. The Portuguese book is nothing but a list of vocabulary words and a few phrases. There is no pronunciation key, making it pretty much useless except for pointing. All this information and much more is available anywhere on the internet. Don't bother with this set of books!
